Short description

An award-winning film director with 9 years' experience in telling the life story of common people as well as exceptional individuals. Always looking at capturing the diversity of human lives on camera and projecting it on the screen. All productions have been shown to a wide audience in Europe, either in movie theaters and/or on television, and received a large consensus. The combination of being a team player and a leader, allows the capability of meeting customer's requests in terms of quality of work and time management.
